LINDA Raschill

Linda:
I really don't know what to write, only that I hope we have as much fun next year as we did this year. We sure have whinned and griped at each other, but it was all in fun. Remember "and many other like kind" presentes (Linda) that we can always be as good as friends as we are now. After all you and I both think alike (Right). I also hope this summer we can do what we planned on doing. I guess we just wouldn't know what to do with our leadclothes. Like someone said before, the consperatable. We still have a big, big, nights and all the next day coming up - The Junior-Senior Banquet - Happy Days, Well I think I'm starting to near the bottom, so Good Luck to you Linda, and may we always be Lasom buddies

THE 1961 MEDIAPOLIS COMMUNITY SCHOOL ANNUAL

FOREWORD

We, the annual staff of 1961, are very happy to present to you this year's edition of our annual. We hope that in years to come, as you look through this book you will have many happy memories of your experiences with Mediapolis Community High School, whether as a student or an alumnus.

The members of the staff received a great deal of pleasure while putting this annual together. We know that in years to come that we will get a great deal of enjoyment out of reliving our high-school days by looking through this annual.

Throughout the annual we have featured our fine new building. We wish to express to the Board of Education our gratitude for the excellent facilities they have provided for our use. This first year in the new building has been a memorable one for students, faculty as well as the community at large. We hope that the community may receive the satisfaction of having provided this fine High School, dedicated to the education of its youth. We hope to prove worthy of your efforts.

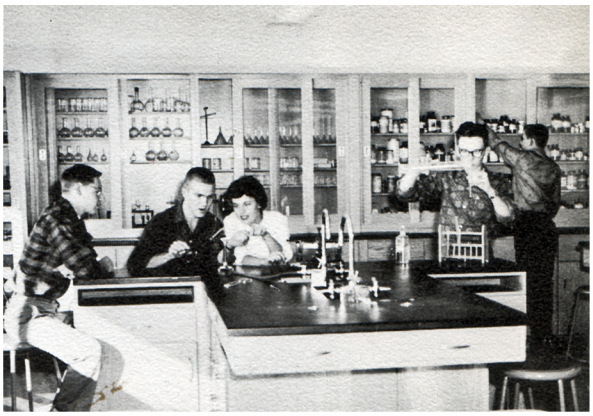

We, also, extend our warmest thank-you to our adviser, Mrs. Hutchcroft and to all who contributed through advertising to make this annual possible.

The Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for journalism, has been reactivated in our school this year. To become a member of our chapter of Quill and Scroll, each student must meet certain requirements: A staff position on either the yearbook or newspaper, high scholastic record, be classified as a Junior or Senior, recommendation of sponsors, and acceptance by the international secretary for the requirements of Quill and Scroll. This year the chapter was organized as an honorary society and has elected no officers nor have there been any chapter projects. The sponsors are Mrs. Ronald Gibson and Mrs. June Hutchcroft.

Student Council

The Student Council is the student governing body of the high school. They sponsor the monthly high school parties which are held in the concourse. Some of this year's party themes were Sno-Ball, Wonderland-by-Night, and Heart's Hop.

Our chapel services have a local minister for the guest speakers, and special music by small vocal groups.

The honor point system is set up and regulated by the council.

Row 3: Sandra Lane, Areta Anderson, Marilyn Schofield, Jean Schmeiser, Eileen Moser, Linda Kinsinger, Joan Schmeiser, Elaine Schmeiser, Carolyn Hillyard, Mary Rice.

This year the F. H. A. had grown so large that Mrs. Cling, the sponsor, divided it into two groups. The Junior–Senior group meets on the second Wednesday night of the month and the Freshman–Sophomore group on the fourth Wednesday night. The projects this year have included sale of fruit cakes at Christmas, the refinishing of furniture, making of favors for the nursing home, a Daddy-date night, supper meetings, studying family life in foreign countries, and F. H. A. Week. The theme for this year was "Family Living"

Under the able coaching of William Wilson, with the assistance of Thomas Coates and Don Shroeder, the Mediapolis Bulldogs started off their season in high gear. Mediapolis showed their fine defense by keeping all teams within an 8 point difference in scores. The Bulldogs maintained a defensive average of 17.1 and an offensive average of 20.6. Morning Sun and Riverside fell before the mighty, determined Bulldogs. Even though the Bulldogs didn't come up with a victory in the opener of the 1960 football season, they showed initiative and spirit. Tense moments came during the Winfield vs. Mediapolis when Winfield escaped the Bulldogs in the last minute of play, 21–20. Dad's night topped off the football season with Mediapolis' victory over Riverside.

Eleven were awarded letters: Ron Schofield, Evan Wilson, Ron Honson, Bill Franklin, Dave Hulett, Eddie Green, Gary Lord, Richard Lord, Randy Poggemiller, Charles Thie, and Lynn Patterson.

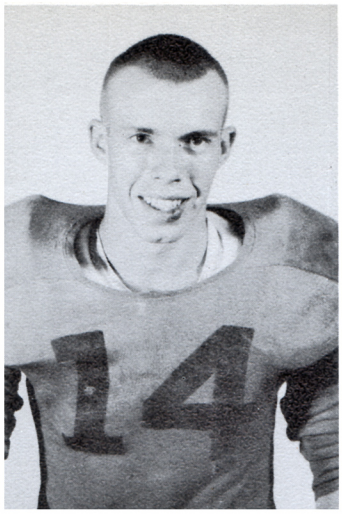

Ron Schofield and Evan Wilson were tied leading the Bulldogs' scoring attack.

Ron Honson was selected Most Valuable Player.

Barbara Pforts
Most Valuable Player

The Mediapolis Bullettes turned in a very successful season for 1960–61 under the able command of Coach Bud McLearn. Judy Amenell led the scoring column with Barbara Bush coming in second place. Judy Amenell also received two trophies for her work at the charity line.

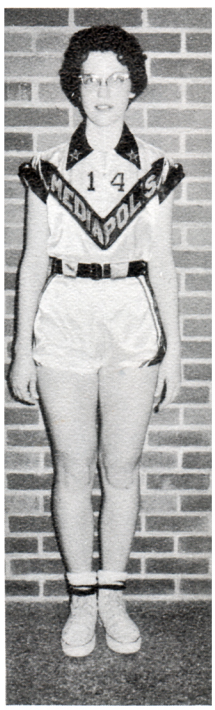

Mediapolis opened its season playing L & M. Morning Sun gave the hard-fighting Bullettes trouble as they downed them in the District Tournament. The Sectional Tournaments were held at Mediapolis this year with the Bullettes taking top honors.

The Bullettes finished with 17 wins; 7 losses.

Judy Amenell was the team captain for the year. She represented the team in the free-throw contests at the sectional, district, and state contests. She won the sectional and district contests by making 23 of 25 shots at each contest, and then went on to the state contest where she shot 22 of 25 shots which placed her as fifth in state.

Barbara Pforts was an outstanding player this year and was elected the Most Valuable Player by the members of her team. She also was elected to the all-conference first team.

Joanne Breder, Barbara Pforts, Judy Mercer, and Judy Amenell were on the all-state honorable mention list.

Linda,

Remember all of our history tests and all that? Think we could still get by with as much? If we don't, just think of all the fun we've had; working for the banquet and all that stuff.

Lots of luck to a real good kid, and don't do anything I wouldn't in the future!

Irene

Linda,

Well I guess we've all finally made it through another year of goofing off and fidding around.

I wish you the best of luck in your senior year.

John

Lin,

Just think of all the fun we've had (And the trouble) But I wouldn't trade this year for any other. Remember our Class play? and our Bugology field trip? Your the best and only friend I've ever had. I could write a book about our good times but then nobody else could write in here - So here's looking towards our Senior year!

Love,
Joyce

P.S. How was bookkeeping this year. Rough??

Linda,

Another year down the drain, we've all been kicked and trained.

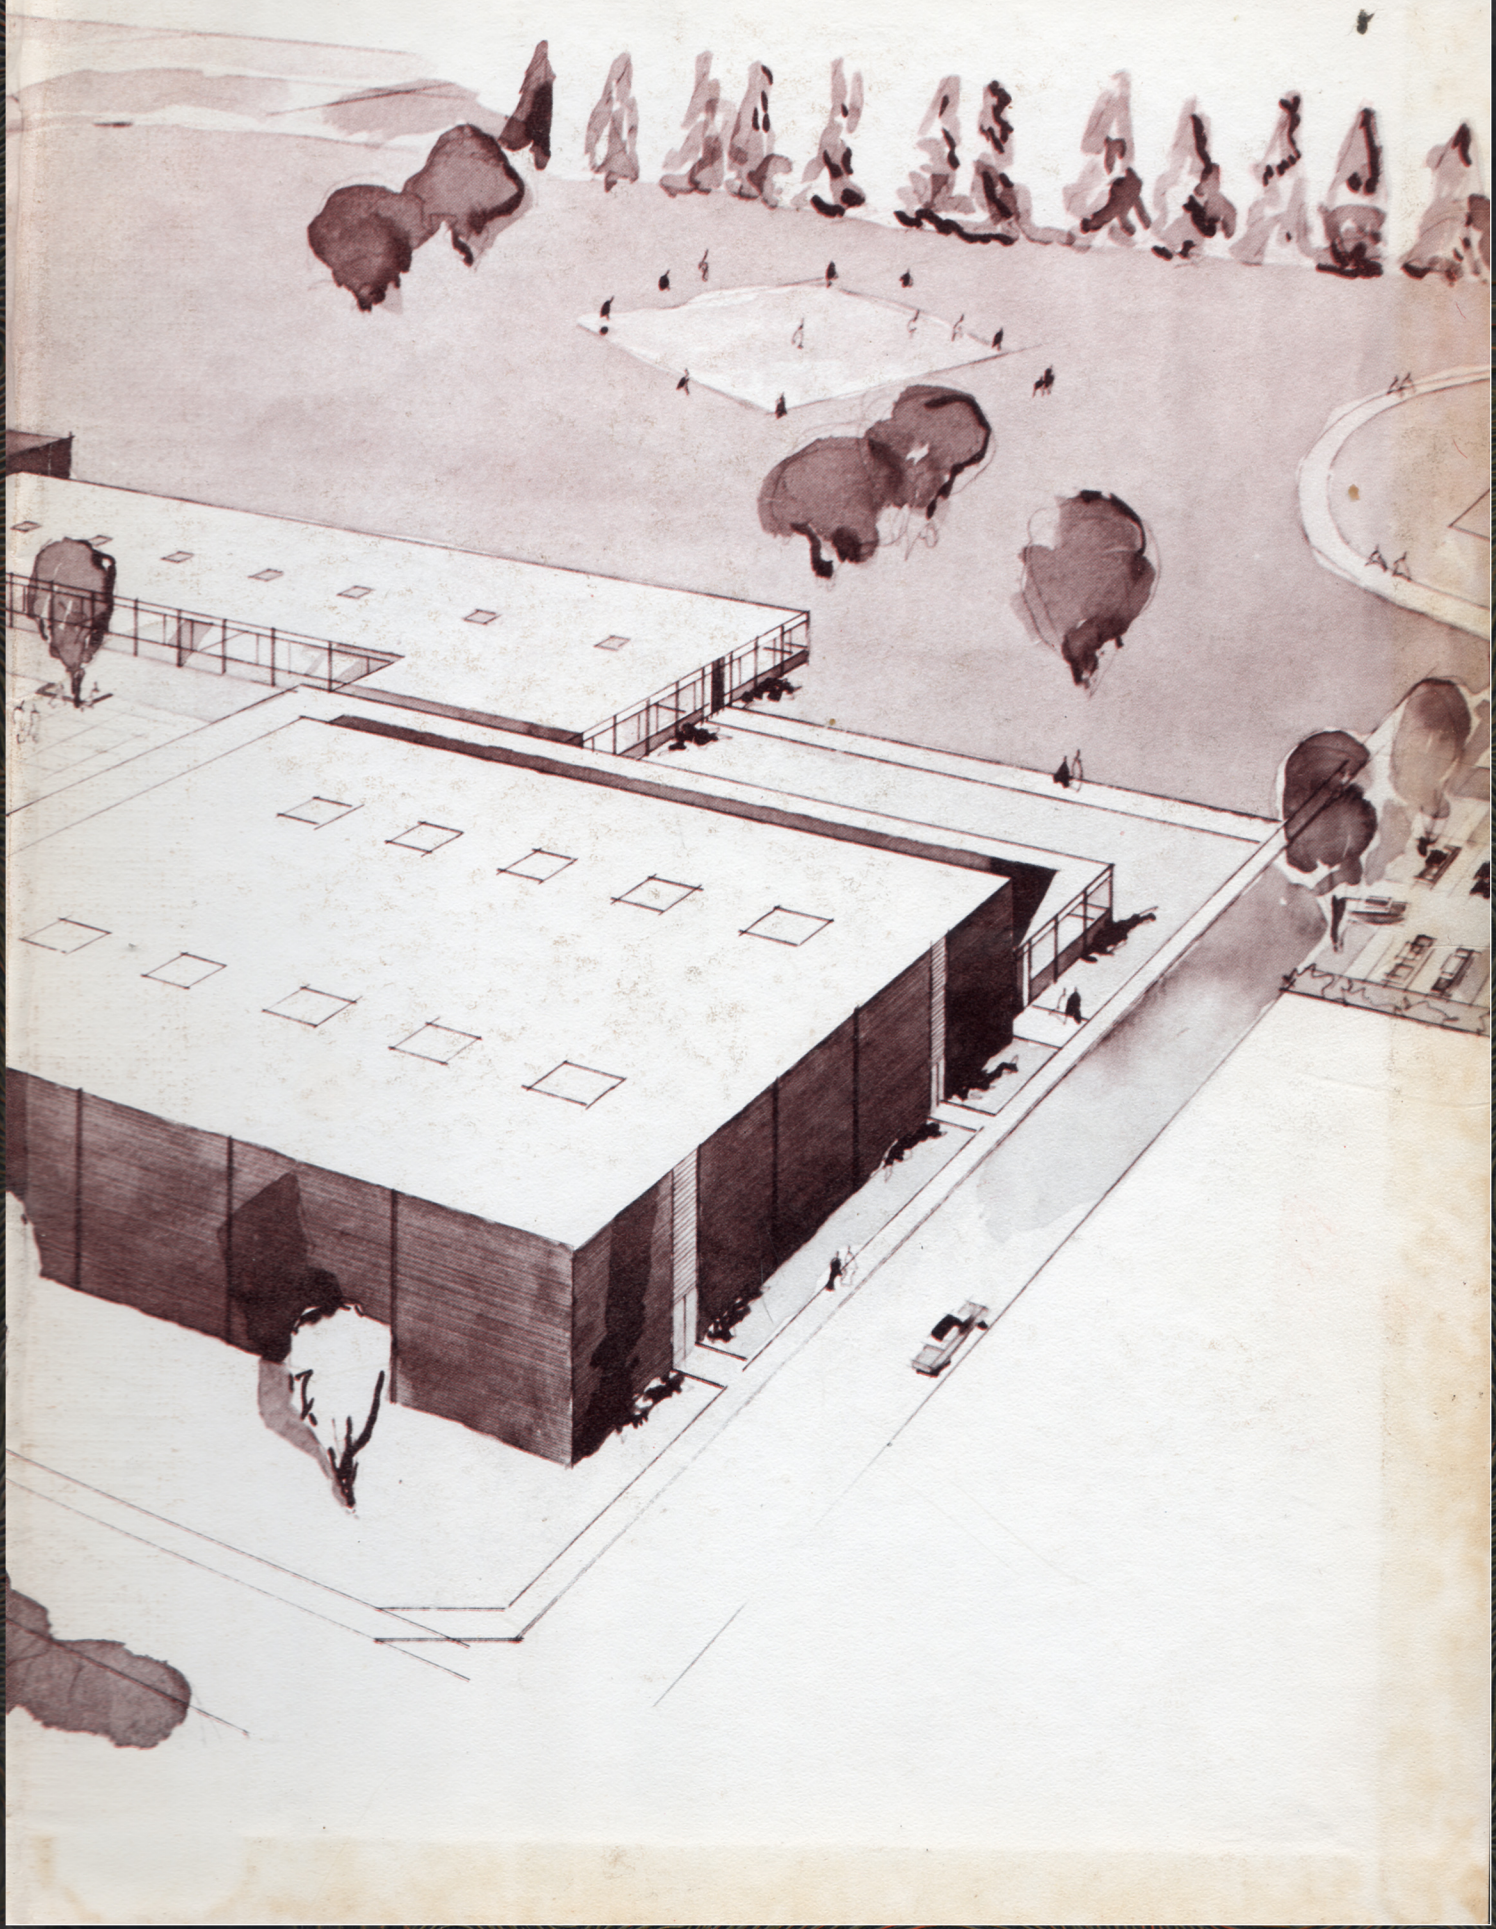

Good luck in your senior year.
